On account of advanced age I am desirous of changing my residence, and have offered for sale my lot situated opposite the city of Wheeling, on the river bank, midway between Bridgeport and Martin's Ferry. The property consists of 60 acres of hill and table land and 15 of river bottom. In the hill there are two tracts of coal, 25 and 35 feet thick, three deposits of limestone, an 18 foot vein of coal texture sand or free stone, an 18 foot vein of sand, which altogether make a soil and an underlying bed of deposits of a rich and valuable character.

On the surface, the large portion of which lies gently sloping to the east, and all under direct exposure to the sun, is a Vineyard of 36 acres, mostly planted in the vine in its bearing condition, about seven years old, which has proven itself able to pay a handsome percent to the cultivator.

The property is being approached above and below by an advancing line of persons seeking small homesteads, and is now really the only unoccupied territory between Bridgeport and Martin's Ferry. It is valuable as an investment to those who want a market garden growing close to the city. It fronts beautifully upon the river and commands a view of the city, the island and the whole scenery of the valley.

The terms of sale will be one-third cash, balance in two annual payments, 8 per cent interest on deferred payments. For further particulars inquire of RICHARD L. WILDER, 1413.

On the premises, or by mail at Bridgeport, Ohio, on the 24th inst.

Benjamin Davis, Daniel Quinlan and Elijah Black were also charged with disorderly conduct, but the examination of their cases was postponed until this morning.

SOMETHING ABOUT CHEESE.—Mr. Daniel Goette is the name of an individual who has been down the river, and who a few days ago was in town peddling Swiss cheese. Probably the cheese did not prove as salable as Daniel desired, for we learn that he undertook and succeeded in not only selling the cheese, but also a salmon recipe—by misrepresentation. Goette went to the saloon of Henry Schwartz, in Centre Wheeling, and stated that he had sold two cheeses to Mr. Frank Walters, and that Mr. Walters requested him to leave them at Mr. Schwartz's saloon and Mr. Schwartz would give him the money. Mr. Schwartz took the cheese, and gave the salmon recipe $2. When Mr. Walters came in, Schwartz informed him of the safe arrival of the cheese, and was much astonished to learn that that gentleman had never ordered anything of the kind. There was some swearing after this, and finally it was agreed that if the salmon didn't return the money and take away the cheese within a stipulated time he would be prosecuted. We have not heard of the result.

TRANSFERS OF REAL ESTATE.—The following transfers of real estate were admitted to record in the office of the Clerk of the County Court yesterday:
Deed made Oct. 23, 1876, by Andrew H. Britt and wife to Otto Krepps, for the east one-half of lot No. 93, situated on the north side of 18th street, formerly called Clay street, in East Wheeling; $1,000.
Deed made Oct. 23, 1876, by Asel Huff to James Huff and Patterson Huff, for 112 acres of land in Triadelphia district; $7,000.
Bill of sale, dated July 30, 1874, by Geo. W. Robinson to Albert P. Hall, for photograph and picture gallery in room No. 1115 Main street; $7,500.
Deed made Oct. 3, 1876, by Asel Huff to James Huff, for 12 acres, 1 road and 11 perches of land in Triadelphia district; $500.

LAYING GAS PIPE TO THE ISLAND.—The work of laying gas pipe across the river to the island, which was commenced on Saturday last, is now being pushed forward rapidly. The river has commenced rising, and every effort will be made to complete the work before the water gets high enough to impede operations. The pipe is being laid from the east side of the river, and already over 250 feet have been laid. As this is about half the distance across the river, it is probable that the work will be completed today, or to-morrow.

Rev. Franklin Ball started for the East, and the Centennial Exposition yesterday.

Mr. John Baile, the clever and popular ticket agent, arrived home last evening from a two weeks' visit at Philadelphia.

Mr. Jacob Hall, Mr. P. B. Dobbins and wife and Mrs. John Mendel were among the Centennial departures yesterday.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME.—The rapid approach of winter has been reminding citizens who are in comfortable circumstances of the great good it is in their power to do for those of their neighbors who are not so fortunate. While looking about to do good, our charitable disposed citizens should not forget the Children's Home, and the objects of their benevolence directly to the sympathies of the public. We understand that in a few days the managers of this institution will collect their annual subscriptions, and we trust that all who are called upon will contribute according to their means.

Robert C. List, Esq., who was appointed to take charge of the permanent fund of the Children's Home, has received several large contributions lately, which were very welcome.

That large-hearted man, Captain Henry Wallace, of the La Belle Mill, has handed Mr. List a check for $3,000, while two other subscribers, of $400 and $350 respectively, have been made recently to this fund.

TWO MORE CENTENNIAL EXCURSIONS.—Notwithstanding the large number of our citizens who have been leaving town daily for the Centennial, two large excursion trains yesterday departed over the Baltimore & Ohio and Cleveland & Pittsburgh roads. We understand that over 200 tickets were sold in this city for the B. & O. excursion, while at least as many more were sold in Wheeling and Bridgeport for the excursion over the Cleveland & Pittsburgh road. We should think that by this time every man, woman and child in this vicinity had been to Philadelphia since the opening of the Exposition.

THE TELEGRAM BACK AGAIN.—The steamer Telegram, which left here on Friday evening last with a party of excursionists for the Pittsburgh boat race, returned yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock. After overcoming almost insurmountable difficulties in the way of scant water, the steamer arrived at Pittsburgh at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. The excursionists, however, had abandoned her at Steubenville and gone the balance of the way by rail. Some of them returned on the 2 o'clock train yesterday morning, while others waited for the boat and came down on her.

An honest Democrat who lives somewhere on the hills back of West Wheeling came to town Saturday evening last to participate in the demonstration gotten up by his political friends. Before shouldering his torch, however, he called at a certain jewelry store and asked the proprietor to take care of his pocket book until after the procession, as he was going to march and didn't know what kind of a squall he might get into. Smart, wasn't he?

A HOWLING REFORMER.—Pay Agan, who was discharged from the Circuit Court the other day because he could not be convicted in this State of stealing a skill in Ohio, was in the Democratic procession Saturday night. As he passed the counsel who had defended him, Pay yelled, "Hurrah for reform, Mr. Good!"

THE VINTAGE.—The grape yield of the present vintage was not so good as the large crop known in this vicinity. The vintage is now about over, and the grape growers are able to form some estimates as to the value of the crop. The rainy, unseasonable fall weather which prevailed during the last of September and the beginning of October, affected the beginning of the vintage, which is particularly adapted and nearly altogether used for wine making—as to ruin a large portion of the crop. The frost, also, did considerable damage, preventing the grapes from properly ripening, and obtaining the necessary sweetness for wine. Thus, a considerable portion of the immense crop fell to the ground a dead loss. However, notwithstanding these losses, the yield of grapes suitable for wine making in this vicinity is larger than for some years. Last year, it will be recollected, the year before a very fine yield. The quality of the grapes this year, although not up to the yield of 1874, is still very good. For instance, this year the Catawba contain 70 per cent of sugar matter, against 84 in 1874; but in 1874 the percentage was higher than in 1875, and the force of the weather has been most unfortunate. The grapes have been more or less injured by frost and rain, and there is a great variation in the quantity of sugar matter, upon which is based the value for wine making purposes. Particularly in this case upon some lands, where the crop did not so well, the influence of the sun as upon the hillside. In these cases the grape growers have little or no demand for their product, even for the part of it which has properly matured. The few who have succeeded in finding a market for their Catawba, return the other way, at the low price of two cents per pound, a reduction of one-half from the price paid last year. This, of course, will entail a heavy loss upon many of the grape-growers.

CAMPBELL TARR.—Hon. Campbell Tarr, of Brooks county, was in town yesterday. He seemed to labor under the impression that he had an appointment to address his fellow-citizens of Ohio county on the issues of the day. In the evening a small crowd of Tans and boys assembled about the Court House, before whom the honorable gentleman, like the immortal J. N., proceeded to lift the veil. It was evident that he had assumed the pressure some time before the commencement of his speech, and that he was wandering in mists and fog. The gentleman was under a cloud, and we drop the mantle of charity over his remarks.

The following "straw" was taken in a car on a Westward bound train on the Central Pennsylvania road, Saturday last: Gentlemen—Hayes, Tilden 14, Cooper 1; Ladies—Hayes 23, Tilden 2, Cooper 1. There was a large majority for Hayes on the whole train.
